

Call for 2012 R&D Management Conference Funding Applications

RADMA has issued a call for proposals under its 2012 R&D Management Conference Funding Programme to cover: (1) the Conference fee and (2) up to £250 for travel, subsistence and accommodation. The awards provide support to talented mid-study Masters and PhD students who are presenting a paper that is also relevant to their study at the 2012 R&D Management Conference. Candidates must be undertaking a Masters or PhD within the research and development management discipline at a UK university. The award will cover costs related to attending the conference, specifically conference fees, travel, subsistence and accommodation.

The 2012 R&D Management Conference is being held at the University of Grenoble, France. The sub-theme is Creating and Capturing Value through R&D Management and Innovation. Please see for more information: <http://www.grenoble-em.com/rnd2012/>

RADMA particularly encourages applications that explore important relevant issues or further understanding in the following areas:

1. Management of scientific and technological activity
2. Management of research development, product design and innovation
3. Strategy formulation and human resources
4. Management of technology and policy
